

News from us

Week ending September 16th 2016

From Mrs Barber

We have had an exciting second week back in school with Open The Book visiting, our Arts morning and also the arrival of this little visitor in the car park on Thursday. We are hoping he will stay at our hedgehog hotel !!

Early Birds and Little Owls News

We have two new play Supervisors beginning next week. Joann Nicholas and Chloe Leach will be in charge of our Monday and Wednesday sessions. Louise Cooper, Mrs White and Andrea Davis will continue to run our Tuesday, Thursday and Friday sessions. All agreements will be sent out next week for signing and invoices will be sent out for both Early Birds and Little Owls on the last week of each half term. This will be week beginning October 16th 2016 and should be paid before the following term begins. We are now only accepting cheques and payments through P4S and not receiving any cash in school. Early bird adhoc will also be invoiced from next week to reduce administrative duties.

Corks

Year 3 and 4 are collecting wine corks for Christmas. If you have any please collect them and pass on to Mrs Mayo.

Letters—paper

Clubs Letter—Year 1 to 4
School Photographs —All
All letters are posted on our website

Parents Autumn Diary and School Term Dates for 2016 to 2017 are on the website today

New T E Day Date

Monday November 28th
School closed for staff training

Stars of the week

Year 3/4— Jack B

For supporting and encouraging others on Arts morning

Year 2— Jamie

For his enthusiasm and perseverance in maths

Reception/Year 1— Florence

For using interesting describing words when talking about new and old toys

ECO NEWS

We will only distribute letters in paper form if they require a reply or signature. All other notifications and letters will be posted on the website. We will send you a text to let you know they are here. Our ECO team are aiming to reduce the amount of paper

Individual School

Photographs

Tuesday 20th

September 2016

Winter uniform please

Many Happy Returns to:

Daisy May

Who celebrates her birthday this week.

