

News from us

Week ending 7th July 2017

From Mrs Barber

Thank you to Miss Double who taught us how to Country Dance today. We managed to learn two dances, which was lots of fun. Photographs on our website.

Summer Reading Challenge

The children had a presentation from the Librarian this week and have been encouraged to read through the Summer. They have all been given a leaflet on the Summer Reading Challenge and we hope most of our children will take up this challenge.

Children can gain Children's University points for their passports for this challenge.
