

News from us

Week ending 13th October 2017

From Mrs Barber

Every Friday for 3 weeks the children come together as a house for a Philosophy 4 children time. They discuss a question linked to our PSHE themes. This week's question (thunk) was "should we be angry at people who break the rules". Please discuss at home.

Shared Learning

Parents are invited to hear from the children what they have learnt this half term.
Yr 3/4 Monday at 2.30 pm
Year 2 Friday at 2.30 pm

Year 3 4

Children in Year 3 4 need wool to make Pom Poms. If you have any spare wool please drop into Year 3/4.

Football Tournament

Well done to Year 3 and 4 footballers who took part in the inter school tournament at Inkberrow this week. The children worked well as a team and showed good sportsmanship.

School Uniform

Please could all children wear their winter uniform. White shirts or blouses and ties. Spare ties are on sale in the office at £5.00.

Scarecrow House Competition

20 house points for making a scarecrow for the Upton Snodsbury Scarecrow Walk on Saturday 28th October 2017. All children are invited to be creative and make a scarecrow no more than 60 cm tall for the display. All entries to be in school for Friday 20th October.

Stars of the week

Year 3/4— Alfie D

For his good thinking especially in mathematics and for being a great team leader at the Cluster Football Tournament.

Year 2— Vangelis

For persevering in his joined up handwriting.

Reception/Year 1— Holly P

For excellent questioning.
